

Basic MEMS Curriculum

Applicant's name: _____

1. Complete the following courses:

NOTE: Independent Study (IS) courses and certificates of completion are available online, free of charge, on the FEMA Website: <https://training.fema.gov/is/crslist.aspx>

IS 42 - Social Media in Emergency Management

IS 100 - Introduction to Incident Command System

IS 200 - ICS for Single Resources and Initial Action Incidents

IS 700 - National Incident Management System

IS 800 - National Response framework

IS 75 - Military Resources

IS 520 - Introduction to Continuity of Operations Planning for Pandemic Influenzas

IS 904 - Active Shooter Prevention

IS 915 - Protecting Critical Infrastructures Against Insider Threats

IS 2200 - Basic Emergency Operations Center Functions

2. Complete a MEMS Practicum. Your participation in the activation or exercise should be 4 to 6 hours minimum.
3. Members will submit the SGAUS membership application with certificates of course completion.

After completing the Basic MEMS course of study, Participants will be able to work at any emergency disaster location and then move forward to the Senior MEMS training.

NOTES: _____

[\[back to top\]](#)