

Master MEMS Curriculum

1. Applicants may start to work on their Master level course immediately upon receiving their Senior MEMS certification and will wait 6-months before applying for Master level certification.

2. Applicants are expected to have participated at a high level in planning and execution of emergency plans, exercises, and emergency responses.

Complete the following courses:

IS 201 - Forms Used in Preparation of the Incident Action Plan

IS 703 - NIMS Resource Management Course

IS 19.22 EEO Supervisors Course revised

ICS 400 - Advanced Incident Command Systems (in classroom only)

IS 916 - Critical Infrastructure Security: Theft and Diversion

3. Complete a Master MEMS Practicum Your participation in the activation or exercise should be around 8 to 12 hours minimum or more.

4. Members will submit the SGAUS membership application with the certified documents.

After completing the Master MEMS course of study, Participants will have knowledge necessary to work at the management level within a complex incident and be able to move to the LNO All Hazards course of instruction.

[\[back to top\]](#)